SAND VIA LONG PRAIRIE.

As this is a hard place to send off mail, twice a week, is why we don't write oftener. Of course we get all mail that is addressed to us, twice a week, on Tuesday and Saturday.

It has rained only showers down our way, and they don't do much good. Our cotton is doing pretty nicely. Some of the old cotton is loaded with bolls, we count from 20 to 27 to the stalk, but all is not that way.

Mr. Paul Malke of Port Arthur is with home folks for a three weeks visit.

A big ice cream party was given at the home of Mr. John Malke last Sunday evening. The attendants were: Mr. and Mrs. Robert Malke, from near here; Mr. and Mrs. Gus Malke, of Northrup. Mr. and Mrs. Ernst Winkusch and children.

Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Bibas were visitors at Manheim last Sunday.

The following attended the Play Party which was given by Gerhard Becker, last Sunday night: Mr. Leo Bibas, Miss Alwine and Miss Mary Bibas, Mr. Willie and Miss Selma Malke. All enjoyed a nice time.

Mr. Carl Malke and Miss Minna visited their brother last Sunday night, and while down there they froze a gallon of ice cream and all enjoyed themselves nicely.

Mr. John Noark of Winchester has been out here looking after his cattle and brought some Kreso Dip, which he used when dipping his cattle. This sure is a fine way to get rid of ticks.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Hiescher of Sand went over to Aug. Paulick last Sunday for a visit.

Mr. Otto Menzel gave an ice cream supper last Tuesday night which was attended by Mr. August Menzel and children, Messrs. Willie, Paul, Carl and Miss Selma Malke, and all had a good time.

Paul Malke went to see his Honey-moon last Sunday. "Moonshine."
