

Sand Items

As it is quite a good while since any one has written to the News from this place, so here it comes.

The cotton crop was very short and every one is feeling downhearted. Corn is about 75 per cent crop. Homemade syrup is plentiful.

John Malke and son made a special trip to Winchester Sunday.

Robert Miertschin and wife of Grassyville visited in our community last Sunday. They traveled in a tin-Henry truck.

Gus. Malke and family of Northrup made an auto-trip to And. Biebas Sunday night.

Gerhard Driesner and "heavy-set" Paul Noack are supplying good beef for their club at Sand.

Aug. Paulick and family spent Sunday afternoon with John Paulick. John has his sister and her husband from California as visitors.

John Malke, carpenter, is doing some repair work on the residence of Emil Menzel.

Several from here attended the funeral of John Beisert at Loebau. Among them were Mrs. John Malke and children.

Moonshine,
a Reader of the News