

SAND ITEMS

(Too late for last week)

Again, a few lines from our part of the world.

Ernst Wukasch and family of Loebau visited relatives here last Saturday and Sunday.

John Malke, wife and son Carl attended the wedding of Herman Zoch and Miss Lydia Symmank near the Colorado River.

Arthur Wenke of Sand was present at the Symm-Krause wedding last Sunday night.

Willie Malke of this place is now with Paul's restaurant at Giddings.

Mrs. Alvine Blehas spent a few days in Nerikrup with her sister Mrs. Gus Malke.

John Paulick is busy making hay this week. He claims 125 bales for his fall crop, and from his summer crop he saved 100 bales.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Otto Rischnick a fine baby boy. Otto is wearing a broad smile.

The St. Paul's congregation at Serbin celebrated their missionary services last Sunday. The preaching was done by Revs. Stropphagen and Bohot.

The collection amounted to $393.17. The Serbin choir sang several beautiful selections.