

The Giddings News

July 21, 1922

Sand Shiftings

Since nothing has been written from our part of the country for a long time, I will send in some News.

Fodder is about saved and corn is good, cotton is putting on but the boll weevil is doing a good deal of damage. We are in need of a good rain.

Miss Annie Paulick was recently surprised on her birthday when a big crowd gathered and spend a pleasant while. She received many nice gifts. Miss Annie said for the young folks to come again.

Prof. E. B. Malke, wife and baby of St. Louis spent last week with his brother R. H. Malke and family and he also visited his other relatives out here.

Robert and Ben Malke and their families spent Wednesday evening at the home of John Paulick. Music was furnished by the phonograph.

Robert Biebas and Willie Jakobela were shopping in Winchester Wednesday.

Ernst Fritsche, wife and daughter Ella, and Ernst Wukasch and family of Lincoln spent last Sunday with Robert Malke and wife.

Gus Malke and family of Northrup and Robert Biebas and family of this place spent Sunday afternoon at the home of And. Biebas.

Alvin Menzel and Willie Malke were out Monday night, both claiming they had business to look after.

Cotton patch.