

TANGLEWOOD, NOTES.

Tanglewood, Tex., Nov. 9, 1920.

The farmers are still busy gathering corn and sweet potatoes. The cotton is all gathered, and the owners are holding for better prices.

Dr. McLarty has been laid up with a carbuncle on the back of his neck and had to go to the Sanitarium at Cameron Sanitarium and have it cut out. He is still there.

Mrs. Bierbower is very sick and a son and daughter have been visiting her from North Texas.

Joel Cherry and family were here Sunday from String Prairie visiting.

Families are still moving away from here. Bert Morgan and wife left Monday for Upshur Co. Mr. and Mrs. Malone have gone on a visit to Lockhart.

Hobson Reat took a lay-off last week to visit his friends in Dime Box.

Mr. John Pounders has sold his home here to Alfred McJoy.

"Observer".