

The Giddings News

February 10, 1922

Tanglewood Tales

Special Correspondence to the News

Those who were in our town Monday can affirm the fact that the sand in these forests is not stationery.

Bro J. A. Stephens our missionary preached at the Baptist shurch Sunday. Quite a crowd was present.

Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Tabor gave the young folks a party Friday night. Al seemed to have had a joly time.

Bob Curlee was in Rockdale last Thursday.

John Dumont and J. A. Johnson were shopping in Lexington last Friday.

The boys and girls of New Salem school played our boys and girls a game basketball Saturday evening They beat our boys and girls but it was not as easy as our visitors had thought.

Charley Ferguson and family of Taylor visited the Curlee home Sunday.

A large crowd attended the singing at Mrs. A. J. Morgan's Sunday evening.

Roy Roberts who formerly lived here but now working with the Sap bridge crew was shaking hands with friends here Monday.

Dr. C. M. McLarty of Dime Box visited his daughter Mrs. H. H. Reat of this place Monday.

We are informed that some of our citizens have leased their land to oil companies for $1.00 per acre in advance, that sounds like somebody is getting interested.