

The Giddings News

February 17, 1922

Tanglewood Tales

Special Correspondence to the News

Miss Jewel Kelley who is teaching school near Taylor visited home folks here.

Miss Bess Crosby one of the teachers of this place visited her home folks at Tracy Saturday returning Sunday.

Dr. Shaffer of Lexington was called to see J. W. Shaver Saturday who is reported to have pneumonia.

J. J. Brown and family of visited Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Brown Sunday.

The young folks enjoyed a party at H. H. Reats Friday night.

Jeff Yeager is moving back. He will live in the Cold Springs Community.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Alexander and children of Hicks visited Mr. and Mrs. Alfred McVoy Sunday.

Edd Edson a former blacksmith of Gause is moving in to run the blacksmith shop here.

Grandma Chambliss is reported to be on the sick list.

Messers Hewitt and Hicks have been in our midst for the last few days for the purpose of getting up oil leases. They promise if they can get 3500 acres to put down a well 3500 feet.

J. A. Treadwell and family, E. M. Purser and family, and Mr. and Mrs. J. W. McVey motored to Minerva Sunday afternoon.