

The Giddings News

June 30, 1922

Tanglewood Tales

A good rain is needed in our vicinity, as this sand is very disagreeable this hot dry weather. But with ripe melons and tomatoes, green peas and corn guess we should be satisfied.

S. E. Linn spent the past week end at Cameron, with his son Clifford who has been there for the past two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Threadwell and son Arvel accompanied by Gladys and Wilford Linn spent Sunday in Cameron.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce McVoy and children and Mrs. J. W. McVoy visited relatives near Rockdale Sunday.

Miss Althea Threadwell of Austin is visiting homefolks.

Born:— Monday June 26th. to Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Labor a daughter.

Mr. Willie Longmier of Rockdale spent Saturday with Bruce McVoy.

Misses Jewell Curlee, Lilla Wheelus and Gladys Linn and Messers. Bill Dumont, Joe Morgan and Ernest Brown attended the Literary at Cole Springs Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Ferguson and children of Taylor spent Sunday of last week at the Hob Curlee home.

— Fly a Flag July 4 —

Stop That Itching.

If you suffer from any form of skin disease, use the reliable Blue Star Remedy guaranteed by W. E. York & Co. to relieve Itch, Eczema, Tetter, Ringworm, Dandruff, Cracked Hands, Old Sores, Sore Feet and Sores on Children.