

The Giddings News

April 4, 1924

Tanglewood News

The farmers are beginning to feel like winter is going to stay with us all the year as the northers keep coming. No corn is up and it is almost time to plant cotton, but we must be patient and not grumble for it is better late than never.

The Fifth Sunday Meeting, composed of Milam, Lee and Burleson Counties, met with the Christian Church here last Sunday with a very large representation from the various churches. The next meeting will be with the San Gabriel church the fifth Sunday in June.

The singing school conducted by Mr. Beaty of Temple is still in progress at the Christian church.

Jeff, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Pricer, who has been sick for several months, is very low and not expected to live.

Little Bess Pounder who has pneumonia is reported better.

Miss Viola Treadwell who is teaching near Taylor spent the week-end with her parents Mr. J. A. Treadwell and wife.

Mr. J. Malvin Hare who is teaching at Dime Box was here with friends Saturday night.

Mrs. V. Swain of Taylor is visiting relatives here this week.

Mrs. Ila Lotz and little son are visiting her sister Mrs. E. L. Pounder this week.