

The Giddings News

April 11, 1924

Tanglewood News

Tanglewood, 4-8-24.

After a few days of spring weather the farmers are wearing a smile, all the vegetation have lifted their heads and if this nice weather continues the gardens will soon furnish us with plenty of good eatables.

Several new cases of measles and whooping cough are reported this week.

Little Jeff, the six year old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Pricer died on the 1st and was buried here on the 2nd, Rev. L. R. Byrum of near Gardner conducted the funeral services.

The remains of Charles V. Crim of Aransas Pass was buried here last Monday afternoon. Mr. Crim was reared at Hicks and has many friends here.

Mrs. Durham, of the Pleasant Grove community, will be buried here this afternoon. We extend our heartfelt sympathy to all the bereaved ones who have lost their loved ones in death.

We had an election here last Saturday for the purpose of raising our school tax but it lost, seventeen to twenty-six.

The trustee election resulted in the election of Mr. J. L. Pricer and Mr. A. O. Plant, Mr. W. S. Drake remaining in and Mr. R. T. Curlee and Mr. S. E. Linn retiring.

Rev. W. H. Moran filled his regular appointment here at the Baptist Church last Saturday and Sunday. The Carr Quartett of Temple was present Sunday and rendered some special music which was very much appreciated.

Rev. Peck of Austin will preach here at the Christian Church next Saturday night and Sunday.

Our primary teacher, Miss Bolivar Carlyle, entertained her pupils with a candy breaking Saturday afternoon at the school building. Miss Louise Curlee of Rockdale assisted Miss Carlyle in entertaining.

The singing school has been suspended several nights on accounts of the deaths here.

Dr. C. McLarty of Dine Box is visiting in the home of his daughter, Mrs. Hobson Reat, this week.