Tanglewood, Texas, July 1, 1924.

Mrs. J. L. Taylor of the Pleasant Grove community, who had undergone a very serious operation in the Baptist Sanitarium at Dallas a short time ago, died there last Tuesday and was brought here Thursday for burial. Rev. L. R. Byrum of Lexington Route 3, conducted the funeral services. Mrs. Taylor had been in bad health for about two years. She leaves a husband, four sisters and one brother besides a host of other relatives and friends.

Henry Vick, wife and son George of Lexington, and Guy McMillon and family of Dallas attended the funeral of Mrs. Taylor.

The much wished for rain passed over last night leaving us very dry and if it doesn't rain soon our corn crop will be cut short.
