

The Giddings News

March 3, 1950

(Held over from last week)

Observe Birthdays

Louis Malke enjoyed a get-together of relatives at his home Tuesday, the occasion being his 24th birthday.

Robert Droemer enjoyed his 9th birthday on Feb. 7 with a chicken dinner and lighted cake at the home of his aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Chas Tschatschula with the following guests: his aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Carl W. Droemer; his cousins, Everard, and Dallie Moerbe; his brother Bill, and his little pals Virginia Gaeke and Carolyn Fae Weiser.

Attend Concert

James and Bellie Arndt, Junelle Dunk and Velma Jean Weiser were among those attending the Valparaiso Choir singing at Austin on Feb. 5.

Express Thanks for 'Pounding'

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Brooks and girls say: We want to thank our friends of this community for the nice pounding we received the night they surprised us with a house-warming. Words cannot express our appreciation to our friends and neighbors for the many nice things they have done toward getting us settled in our new home, and helping us to get started on our small poultry farm.

where there are so many nice people. We appreciate the many friends we have made in the short time we have lived here. We know they are our friends for they have proved to be so.

We want to be everyone's friend and we want our friends to feel free to call on us for help in any way we can. We extend a welcome to all to come and visit with us now that we are in our new home at any time. We are always glad to make new friends. Signed: Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Brooks and girls.

Thank You

Mrs. Eddie Schulz, who has recently undergone three major operations but is now well on the way to recovery herewith wishes to thank all who remembered her with cards of cheer during her trying days. She said "How much a card means to a sick person only those realize that are shut in." So once again, thank you!

Personals

Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Oliver of Lexington spent Thursday with the A. W. Brooks family.

Marvin Schulz motored to Elgin on business Wednesday.

Mrs. Theresa Gersch spent the past week with Mr. and Mrs. Gerh. Menzel, while Mrs. Louise

Those spending Sunday and also celebrating the birthday of Mrs. Clarence Tschatschula at the home of Martin Krakosky were Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hempel of San Antonio, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Tschatschula of Houston, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Gersch of Giddings, Milton Krakosky and J. B. Gersch Jr. of Houston, and Miss Irene Krakosky and Charles. Many more happy returns of the day are wished for Mrs. Tschatschula.

Mr. and Mrs. John Paulick took dinner with the Chas. Tschatschulas Sunday. Mrs. Amanda Kasper and little Diana also spent part of the afternoon with them, while Albert Hempel and Misses Beatrice and Virginia Kasper called in the Walter Mertink home.

Chas. Tschatschula and wife visited with the Aug. Paulicks in the Pin Oak Community Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Andy Schatte, stationed in California with the US Navy, was home for a visit last week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. A. Schatte.

Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Cherry of Caldwell were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Tate.