

Walburg. Giddings Deutsches Volksblatt, 29 November 1923. Image 011600166.

Walburg

21 November 1923

Dear Volksblatt,

As we rarely see correspondence in this paper I want to write to you today.

On November 8, 1923, a joyous wedding took place in the home of Mrs. E. Mersiovsky. Her daughter, Klara Mersiovsky and Mr. Karl Krautz were united in marriage for life on this day.

The following men and women were witnesses:

Albert Mersiovsky, Louise Buchhorn, Karl Mersiovsky and Alma Kaiser. Pastor Sieck united them in marriage.

On November 11, 1923, another wedding took place in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Julius Leschber. Their daughter Olga and Mr. Walter Patschke of Thorndale were united in marriage by Pastor Sieck. We do not know who all the witnesses were.

On November 13th I was surprised by family and friends, who gave me a birthday party.

Today we were surprised by the good news that Mr. and Mrs. Alwin Zoch of Port Arthur became the parents of a boy born on November 16. Our congratulations to this joyous event.

Today, November 21, Mr. and Mrs. Bernhard Pillak became the proud parents of a boy. We send our congratulations. May the Lord allow those boys to grow up honoring God and their parents.

How are Papa and Mama J? We don't hear from them at all.

Greetings to all readers of the Volksblatt,

Mrs. Z.