Newton Karisch

Funeral services were held Tuesday for Newton Karisch at 2 p. m. in the St. Michael's Lutheran Church, with the Rev. W. H. Meyer of Pasadena officiating. Interment was made in the Church cemetery, with the Marrs Funeral Home in charge of arrangements.

Newton Karisch was born November 19, 1922 to Mr. and Mrs. Oswald Karisch. He was confirmed in the St. Michael's Church by Rev. Louis Trinklein.

He enlisted in the Armed Services in 1941. He was attached to the medical corps and attained the rank of Chief Petty Officer. He served in the Pacific Theatre.

He married Miss Helen Louise Warren of Lexington on August 26, 1944 at St. Michael's Church by the Rev. E. R. Rathgeber. He was discharged from the service in 1946, and the couple moved to Houston.

He passed away around midnight March 19 at his place of employment. He had gone on the 11:00 p. m. shift at a chemical plant.

Mr. Karisch is mourned by his widow, Mrs. Helen Louise Karisch; his two sons, Philip Wayne and Keith Warren; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Oswald Karisch; his grandparents, Mr. Ernest Karisch and Mrs. Carl Fritsche Sr.; his sisters, Mrs. Jack Brown and Miss Florine Karisch of Houston, Mrs. Elmer Dautenhahn of Waltz, Mich., and Mrs. Joseph Mathis of Spokane, Wash.
