Are Attending Institute

For Church Life

The Rev. Walter Streicher and Eugene Haschke, St. Michael's delegate, are attending the Rural Church Life Institute at Concordia College in Austin Tuesday through Thursday. The program's main idea is how to keep the rural church strong.

Graduates From Medical College

Bill Best, son-in-law of Mrs. A. M. Karisch of Winchester, graduated from the John Sealy Medical College in Galveston. He is now a professional doctor. Mrs. A. M. Karisch attended the graduation over the weekend.

Walther League Notes

The St. Michael's Walther League meeting opened with a short devotion. A topic discussion was led by the Rev. Walter Streicher. A wiener roast is to be given for the newly confirmed June 14. New lighting is to be installed for the volleyball court. The meeting adjourned with saying of the Lord's Prayer.
