

The Giddings Star

February 9, 1956

WINCHESTER

By RENATE STREICHER

Church Notice

St. Michael Lutheran Church,
Missouri Synod

Walter Streicher, Pastor

9 a. m., English services

10 a. m., Bible Class and Sunday School

10:30 a. m., German services

Motion Picture To Be Shown

The St. Michael Lutheran Church will present the motion picture, "The Unfinished Task" Wednesday, Feb. 22. The original outline of the motion picture was written by the Rev. Herman Gekkel.

The story involves a young man who wants to become a missionary in the South Pacific area after serving there as a soldier during the Second World War. The young man's father, however, wants his son to become a partner in his business. The story is woven about, and has its climax in the statement of Jesus: "I must work the works of Him that sent Me, while it is day." This full-

Everyone is invited to attend this showing.

Stationed In Virginia

Pvt. Leslie Karisch is now stationed at Fort Lee, Richmond, Va.

4-H Club Meets

The Winchester 4-H Club girls met with Florence Tschatschula Tuesday evening. Miss Tschatschula, the demonstrator for the group, showed the ten members how to make candy. Two kinds of candy were made. Candy, together with refreshments was served. Several games were played.

Evelyn Reinhardt, reporter.

Church Calendar

The Walther League will meet on Wednesday, Feb. 15, at 7:30 p. m. Because of the rain and cold, the meeting was not held last Wednesday.

Birthday Parties

Friends and relatives helped celebrate the birthday of C. E. Hart Monday evening. Refreshments were served.

Mrs. Theobald Gersch celebrated her birthday with friends and relatives Wednesday evening.

Austin. He was four years old Jan. 27.

Personals

P. H. Nichols spent Thursday with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Smith and Mrs. W. A. Giles.

Clarence Pietsch of Austin spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Rudie Pietsch and Roy.

Calvin Harris of Austin visited with Mr. and Mrs. M. V. Harris Sunday.

Martin Kasper of Houston spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Kasper and family.