

The Giddings News

May 15, 1931

DRY AT YORKTOWN

Emil Fritsche was here from Yorktown last Saturday. He says it is quite dry in his immediate section as they did not receive the recent rains which fell in Giddings. Corn is beginning to show effects of the drought. It is also dry at Yoakum, where the tomato crop is suffering from the dry weather.