ANSOHN-KORB RITES READ
MONDAY, SEPT. 21

In a beautiful and impressive ceremony at the Assembly of God church in Giddings, Miss Wanda Ansohn of Austin became the bride of John Korb of Giddings on September 21, at 8:30 P. M.

Rev. Roy Bounds of Austin officiated assisted by Rev. M. C. Rutherford of Giddings. The vows were taken before a flower-laden altar on either side of which was a U. S. flag. Miss Alice Kipp at the piano accompanied Miss Lola Helmer of Houston who sang "I Love You Truly" before the ceremony. Mrs. Roy Bounds played the traditional wedding marches.

Mrs. Paul Ansohn, matron of honor, and Miss Lola Helmer, the bridesmaid, wore navy blue with corsages of pink carnations. Little Miss Joan Bounds was flower girl.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her brother, Rev. Paul Ansohn of Bruni, Texas, wore a suit of brown silk celenese with brown accessories and a corsage of white gladiola. The groom also wore brown and was attended by his brother, Emil R. Korb of Los Angeles, Calif.

A reception at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Ernest Ansohn, followed the ceremony. Rev. M. C. Rutherford gave a short address, and Rev. and Mrs. Paul Ansohn rendered appropriate accordion and saxophone selections. Miss Alice Kipp presided at the bride's book.

Out-of-town guests from a distance included Mrs. Robert Platte of Waco, Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Ansohn, followed the ceremony, Rev. and twin daughters of Houston.

The bride is a graduate of Central Bible Institute, Springfield Mo., and has been an active church worker in Texas for many years. She has spent the last three years in the Austin section, and is at present sectional director of the Women's Missionary Council.

The groom has of late been employed by The Fairmont Creamery Company in Giddings.

Mr. and Mrs. Korb left Tuesday morning for a short wedding trip to Waco and returned Thursday evening in order that John might leave for service in the Army on Friday morning.
