Arndt of Serbin to John William Chapman of Charlotte, North Carolina, son of Mrs. Henry Roy Chapman of the same city. The church was beautifully decorated with poinsettias, holly and candelabra. The double-ring ceremony was performed by the bride's father, the Rev. A. Arndt. Music was provided by Mrs. Milton Schroeder of Giddings, soloist and Mrs. Gould, organist.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was gowned in white satin and chantilly lace. It was styled with a fitted bodice and long lace sleeve and yoke with a round scalloped lace neckline trimmed with seed pearls. Her full length skirt fell into a train and was enhanced with an overskirt of scalloped chantilly lace. Her fingertip veil of illusion fell from a lace half cap. Her bouquet of white gardenias was placed on top of a white Bible. Her only jewelry was a single strand of pearls, a gift of the groom.

The bride's mother wore a two-piece dress of ice blue taffeta trimmed with rhinestone buttons, and her corsage was of pink sweetheart roses.

A reception was held in St. Paul's Lutheran School. The bride's table, laid with lace cloths, was decorated with red tapers. Members of the house party were Misses Joyce Gruetzner, Helen Steglich, Grace Symm, and Mrs. Leroy Schuster.

After a wedding trip to Austin, Houston and New Orleans the couple will make their home in Chapel Hill, North Carolina, where the groom is a senior at the University of North Carolina. For her going-away ensemble, the bride chose a two-piece dressmaker suit of Navy blue antique taffeta and wore a jeweled white felt hat and navy bag and shoes. Her corsage was of white gardenias.
