CELEBRATE FORTY-FIFTH WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

The children, grandchildren and acquaintances of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Faske of Lincoln gave them a happy surprise on their forty-fifth wedding anniversary. The crowd had gathered at the Wachsmann park and came to the house together making noises and honking horns. Unsuspecting the couple was very surprised.

A most appropriate sermon was given by Rev. Riske of Manheim, and special hymns were sung. Organ music was furnished by Prof. Eldon Heintze, teacher of the Manheim parochial school, and Edward Pillack. The evening was spent chatting and playing cards and dominoes. It was a very enjoyable evening watching the children play. There were twenty-five grandchildren and ten children. A table was spread and coffee and various kinds of cake and sandwiches were served.

Those present were: Rev. and Mrs. J. E. Riske and daughter Carolyn, Messers and Mesdames Eldon Heintze, Herman Arldt, Ernst Unger, Albert Mutschink, Richard Noack, Wolford Galipp, Chas. Herman, Otto, and Willie Faske and families; Ed. Pillack, Walter Heintze, Johnny Eschberger, Fred Unger, Misses Emily Faske, Irene Medack and Paula Eschberger.
