

Miss Cleo Wachsmann Becomes Bride
Of Clarence Fischer In Rites at Manheim

Miss Cleo Agnes Wachsmann and Clarence Dietrich Fischer were united in marriage on Sunday, Oct. 9, at 3 p. m. at Ebenezer Lutheran Church, Manheim.

Mrs. Fischer is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Wachsmann of Route 1, Giddings and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Fischer Sr., also of Route 1, Giddings.

The Rev. G. T. Naumann read the double ring ceremony. Decorating the church were white gladioli and chrysanthemums and blue carnations against a background of palms and candelabra. Mr. E. E. Heinze, organist, played the wedding music.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a ballerina length princess style gown of white slipper satin and Chantilly lace. The gown was fashioned with a bodice of lace over satin with scalloped scoop neckline embroidered with opalescent sequins, fitted waist, full skirt and long tapered sleeves. The dress buttoned down the back with tiny white satin buttons. Her waist length silk illusion veil outlined in Chantilly lace was attached to a tiara embroidered in pearls and opalescent sequins. She carried a bou-quet of white feathered carnations centered with an orchid on a lace and satin covered white Bible. The bride wore a single strand of pearls and pearl earrings, a gift from the groom.

Attendants were Miss Alice Wachsmann, sister of the bride as maid of honor, and Misses Carolyn Wachsmann, sister of the bride, and Mary Ann Fischer of Giddings and Mamie Fischer of Austin, sisters of the groom, as bridesmaids. They wore blue chromspun taffeta ballerina length gowns fashioned identical to the bride's gown and with short scalloped sleeves, the maid of honor's gown being a shade darker than those of the other attendants. Each wore a half-hat of blue lace studded with rhinestone and matching blue lace glovelets. They wore rhinestone necklaces, gifts of the bride. The maid of honor carried a bouquet of bronze chrysanthemums and the other attendants carried bouquets of yellow chrysanthemums.

Flower girl was Sharon Loe-we of Giddings who wore a blue taffeta dress fashioned similar to the attendants and tied with a big sash in the back. She wore a matching blue lace bonnet and glovelets, a rhinestone necklace, and carried a natural straw basket lined in matching blue taffeta and tied with a yellow bow.

—Crayton Photo

MR. AND MRS. CLARENCE FISCHER

Ring bearer was Kenneth Long of Brenham, nephew of the groom. He was attired in a white corduroy suit and wore a blue bow tie with matching blue hankie in his breast pocket. He carried a heart-shaped pillow of lace, satin, and bows.

Ben Fischer Jr. of Angleton attended his brother as best man. George Witte of Giddings, Ernest Beck of Austin, and James Gloy-na of Houston served as groomsmen. Melvin and Victor Wachsmann, brothers of the bride were candlelighters. Ushers were Carlie Wachsmann and Henry Witte of Giddings.

Mrs. Wachsmann and Mrs. Fischer, mothers of the bride and groom, wore silver grey acetate-cotton pongee dresses with black accessories. Both had corsages of white chrysanthemums.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held at the Community Hall at Lincoln. The hall was decorated in blue and white. Blue tapers and a four-tiered cake topped with a miniature bride and groom and embossed with yellow roses and lilies of the valley ornamented the bride's table. In the house party were Mesdames Carlie Wachsmann and Henry A. Witte, Mrs. Ben Fischer Jr. of Angleton and Mrs. Howard Long of Brenham.

A delicious supper of barbecue and all the trimmings was served.

Leaving for a trip to Vernon and points in North Texas, the bride wore a navy blue fallie dress with matching accessories and an orchid corsage. The couple will live in Giddings.

Out-of-town guests included Mrs. Emma Fischer, grandmother of the groom, and Mrs. Erna Strauss and Miss Elizabeth Karle of Port Arthur; Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Holt and son of Galveston; Mr. and Mrs. Leon Wachsmann and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Wachsmann and family, Miss Adeline and Bernice Wachsmann, Mrs. Alferd Glona, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Riedel, Mrs. Lee Herbert and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Marth Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. Milton Behrend of Houston; Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hempel and family of Yoakum; Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Behrens and sons of Thorndale; Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Beck, Pat and Croy, Martin Leitko and sons, and Bruce Fischer of Austin; Mr. and Mrs. Howard Long and sons of Brenham; Mr. and Mrs. Otto Jacob, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Berger and daughter of Carmine, and Keith Fischer of Angleton.