

The Giddings Star

August 7, 1942

FOERSTER-FERGUSON NUPTIALS

The marriage of Miss Louise Pearl Ferguson, daughter of Mr. W. E. Ferguson of Houston, and Mrs. W. E. Ferguson of New York, to Curtis A. Foerster, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Foerster of Paige, took place at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Guy B. Duff in La Grange at 7:30 p. m. Tuesday, in the presence of relatives and intimate friends. Dr. Duff, pastor of the local Presbyterian church read the ceremony before an altar of rosepink crepe-myrtle, Boston ferns and candelabra with white tapers.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore an Olivedrab wool Gabardine suit with white accessories. Her only jewelry was a three strand pearl necklace, gift of the groom. Her turban of snow white feathers had a shoulder length veil, and her corsage was gardenias and stephanotis. Miss Pauline Duff of La Grange was maid of honor. A. J. Foerster, Jr. of Freeport attended his brother as best man.

At the reception after the ceremony Miss Maurice Taylor of Edna, presided at the ring-shaped cake, and Mrs. R. A. Falke of Giddings served the punch.

After a wedding trip to Amarillo Mr. and Mrs. Foerster will be at home in Giddings.

The bride is a graduate of Highland Park high school, Dallas, and S. W. University of Georgetown, where she was a member of Alpha Chi, the national honor fraternity. She is a member of the Giddings High School faculty. Mr. Foerster is employed by Freeze and Nichols construction Company, but will leave in August for the Navy.

The wedding guests were Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Foerster, parents of the groom, Miss Gladys Kuhn, and Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Lehman of Paige, W. E. Ferguson, father of the bride, of Houston; A. J. Foerster Jr. of Freeport; Miss Maurice Taylor of Edna, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Falke of Giddings, and Dr. and Mrs. Guy B. Duff and daughter of La Grange.