FOERSTER - TAYLOR

Miss Maurice Taylor, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. I. T. Taylor of Edna, became the bride of Mr. A. J. Foerster, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Foerster, Sr. of Paige, at Edna August 8th at the Methodist church.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore an original navy crepe suit by Esinburg and Sons. She wore navy and white accessories and a white orchid corsage. The groom was attired in a light business suit.

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of the bride. Summer flowers were featured in decorating the home, and the bride's table was laid with a lace cloth and held a satin iced wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and groom and embossed in blossoms. Opposite it was the punch service. White candelabras holding white candles were on either side of an oblong floral arrangement. Miss Gladys Kuhn, cousin of the groom, assisted in serving. Mrs. C. A. Foerster, sister-in-law of the groom, presided at the bride's book.

The groom, a mechanical engineer, graduate from A. and M. College, is now employed at Freeport where they will make their home.

Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Foerster, Sr., and Miss Gladys Kuhn of Paige and Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Foerster of Giddings.
