

Miss Balcar Weds Jimmy Fojtik at Dime Box Church

Miss Rosetta Balcar and Jimmy Fojtik were united in marriage Tuesday, Nov. 21, in the Czech-Moravian Bethlehem Church at Dime Box. The double-ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. H. E. Beseda of Caldwell.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Balcar of Dime Box, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Emil Fojtik of Somerville.

The church was decorated with tall baskets of yellow chrysanthemums and fern.

Mrs. John Balcar and Mrs. Wm. Kubena, aunts of the bride, sang, "The Lord is My Shepard," accompanied by Mary Lorene Marburger at the piano. She also played the traditional wedding march.

The bride, entering with the bridegroom, wore a gown of white satin with a fitted bodice, with a draped collar held by two pearl clasps. The full skirt swept back into a formal train, tapered sleeves were buttoned at the wrist and formed points over her hands. Her fingertip veil of illusion was held by a lace bonnet trimmed with seed pearls. She wore a single strand of pearls, and carried a bouquet of white gladioli centered with an orchid.

Olga Kubena, Rose Marie Balcar, and Betty Lou Burttschell were bridesmaids. They wore gowns of blue, pink, and orchid.

They wore net gloves and carried identical bouquets of pink carnations tied with ribbons to match their gowns.

Groomsmen were J. D. Fojtik, Stonewall Brinkman, and Jimmie Brinkman. Ushers were Frank Balcar Jr. and Emil Fojtik Jr. Louis Balcar served as candlelighter.

Norma Jean Balcar, flower girl, was dressed identical to the bride. Morris Sample Jr. served as ring bearer.

A reception was held at the SPJST Hall where a barbecue supper was served to about 250 guests.

Mrs. Jerry Pecena registered the guests.

The bride's table held the three-tiered wedding cake which was topped with a bridal couple under a chapel bell.

The mother of the bride was dressed in purple and the bridegroom's mother was dressed in blue. Both had black accessories and wore white carnation corsages.

The couple will make their home in Austin where both are employed.
