

Folkes - Bobo

Saturday afternoon at the home of the bride's parents, Miss Maggie Folkes and Mr. C. C. Bobo were quietly married by Rev. Weaver of Houston. Only the immediate relatives of the contracting parties and a few invited guests were present. The happy couple left immediately by auto for San Antonio where they are spending their honeymoon this week.

Miss Maggie is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Folkes postmaster of Giddings and is a young lady adorned with all the grace and charm which characterize the gentler sex. Her friends are legion and possibly no young lady ever reared in Giddings is more popular than is she. The groom is a business man of this place, is industrious and of an agreeable nature and is quite popular in the social and business circles of the town. The many friends of the wedded couple will join the editor in wishing for them a long life of mutual love, happiness, and prosperity.

Several social functions were given the past week in behalf of the bride, one of which was the shower given at the Masonic Hall where a cleverly planned entertainment was given by the Eastern Star, of which she is the Worthy Matron. It was a complete surprise to the bride-to-be and delight to all present. Miss Folkes had called the special meeting to consider a report from the Grand Chapter by the representative Mrs. Merchant. In the midst of the reading of the report, Billy Bowers came in drawing his express wagon, decorated in O. E. S. colors and filled with pleasing and useful gifts for the kitchen, most of them aluminum. Refreshments of hot chocolate and angel cake squares were served. In addition to the members, the guests were Mrs. Eason, Mrs. John Fields, and Mrs. Milton York, relatives of the bride.

Another informal event was the dinner party given by Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Bowers, Jr. honoring the bride and groom elect. The color scheme was yellow and white in the living, music and dining rooms and was effectively used in decoration. Promptly at 6 o'clock, the guests were ushered into the dining room which presented an inviting scene with table set in maderia and the center piece a crystal basket of yellow and white crysanthemums, resting on a cut glass reflector. Streamers of yellow and white ribbon with place cards attached were extended from the center to each plate. At the conclusion, the guests were asked to pull their ribbons, the ladies drawing each a beautiful corsage bouquet and the gentlemen after-dinner smokes. A four course dinner was served consisting of fruit cocktail, chicken a la king, potato chips, hot rolls, fruit salad and marshmallow pudding. The guests were Miss Maggie Folkes, Mr. C. C. Bobo, Mrs. Bobo of Georgetown, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Folkes, Dr. and Mrs. Johnson, and Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Bowers Jr.

Mr. and Mrs. Knox entertained informally Thursday evening, complimenting Miss Maggie. Only Miss Folkes, Mr. Bobo, and the parents of the bride were included in the personnel of the party. A pleasant time was spent after the dinner which was a la Mexicano, the menu consisting of chili con carne, frijoles, arroz sazonado con chili, tortillas, enchiladas, tamales, cream, cake and coffee.
