Miss Darleen Fuchs, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fuchs of near here, became the bride of Elwood Fischer of Brenham, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Fischer of Burton on Sunday, July 23, at the Greenvine Lutheran Church.

The Rev. E. C. Poehlmann performed the double-ring ceremony. The altar was banked with fern and tall baskets of white asters.

Prior to the ceremony, Miss Gladys Boehnemann of Burton sang, "To Thee We Bow" accompanied by Miss Jeanette Fuchs, who also played the traditional wedding music.

The bride, who entered with the groom, wore a gown of white satin, designed with a sweetheart neckline and a lace yoke, accented by tiny covered buttons extending to the fitted bodice. Her long fitted sleeves came to points over her hands. The full skirt fell into a sweeping train. She wore a fingertip veil of French illusion that fell from a coronet of seed pearls. Her only jewelry was a single strand of pearls. She carried a nosegay of white carnations and tuber roses tied with white satin streamers and love knots.

Miss Arlyn Boehnemann of Austin was maid of honor. She wore a gown of orchid organdy made with a fitted bodice, deep neckline and full gathered skirt. She carried a nosegay of pink carnations.

Mrs. Erhart Schmidt of Houston was bridesmaid. Her gown was of Nile green organdy and was made like the maid of honor's. She also carried pink carnations. Shirley Ann Kelm of Brenham was flower girl. Her gown was of white organdy and she carried a basket of pink sweetheart roses. Bruce Allen Fuchs of here was ring bearer.

Edward Hopmann served as best man and Erhart Schmidt was groomsman.

Leander Fuchs of here, brother of the bride and Erwin Zibilski were ushers.

The mothers of the bride and groom both wore navy sheer dresses and corsages of white carnations.

Miss Lillian Knebel of Houston registered the guests. After the ceremony, a reception was held at the La Bahia hall. A barbecue supper was served to about 150 guests. The bride's table held a three-tiered wedding cake embossed with hearts and lovebirds and topped with bells and a miniature bride and groom. After the bride and groom had cut the first slice of the wedding cake, Mrs. Freddie Eikenhorst of Houston cut the cake and it was served by Mrs. Leander Fuchs, Mrs. Erwin Zibilski, and Miss Tillie Fischer.

After a short wedding trip the couple will make their home in Brenham where the groom is employed as clerk in the A&P Market.
