The Giddings News August 26, 1921

HURST-KING

Mr. Ernest V. Hurst and Miss Grace E. King of Lexington were married by Rev. J. F. Garrett Tuesday. They will live near Gidding 2 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Hurst. Miss King is a sister of B. M. King editor of the Hempstead News and is a young lady who has many friends where she is knon. Mr. Hurst has lived at Giddings all his life and is a splendid young man. The News wishes the couple a life of happiness and prosperity.

Miss Helen Knox returned last week from Medina Lake and San Antonio. She was a party on a summer camp at Lake Medina. She reports pleasant outing. She says that Lee County is known for the good roads that have been built that she was mailing a packagat San Antonio and the clerk remarked; "Giddings, that is the place where we struck thos good roads, gee, but we did fly after coming out of all that and on to those good roads at Giddings."