

The Giddings News

July 24, 1942

ASCHENBECK - NAMKEN

Miss Olga Louise Namken and George C. Aschenbeck were married Sunday afternoon at the Martin Luther church, Rev. Walter G. Tillmanns performing the ceremony.

The bride was dressed in white silk crepe with long veil held in place by a wreath of pearls, and carried a bouquet of white asters. The groom wore a light suit.

The attending couples were Erwin Namken and Marguerite Durrenberger, Fred Foerster and Etta Schueler, Alwin Aschenbeck and Dorine Durrenberger, Myron Namken and Lorene Aschenbeck. Best man was Herbert Koehler and the matron of honor was Mrs. Herbert Koehler, dressed in pink organdy and carrying yellow carnations. Junior bridesmaid was Ruth Namken, dressed in dark blue organdy and her bouquet was pink carnations. The bridesmaids wore floor-length dresses in dark and light blue organdy, carrying pink carnations.

After the ceremony a wedding supper was served at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Namken, to a large group of relatives and friends.

The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Aschenbeck. The newlyweds will make their home in Houston.

The News joins their many friends in extending best wishes.