The fitted lace bodice was fashioned with sweetheart neckline and long sleeves which came to a point over her wrists and tiny covered buttons down the back. A ruffle of pleated nylon tulle fell into a chapel length train. A fingertip veil of illusion was attached to a crown of seed pearls and beads. She carried a bouquet of white carnations with lilies of the valley tied to the streamers.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. Walter Schulze, LaVerne Symmank, Bernice Miertschin and Mrs. Van Durrenberger. They wore gowns of pastel net over taffeta made identical to that of the Matron of honor and carried bouquets of pink carnations with rainbow streamers. Judy Kasper was flower girl.

brother as best man. Grooms-men were Walter Schulze, Wilbert Schubert, Albert Weise Jr., and Van Durrenberger. James Noack was ring bearer. Clarence Noack and Arthur Nitsch served as ushers.

The bride's mother wore a navy dress with navy accessories and the groom's mother wore a navy dress with black accessories.

A reception was held at the Lincoln Community Hall where a delicious barbecue supper and all the trimmings was served to approximately 175 guests.

Covered with a lace cloth, the bride's table was centered with a two tiered wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and groom.
