Leona Toll
Becomes Bride of
Louis Pampell

Miss Leona Toll, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hermann Toll of Ledbetter, became the bride of Louis Pampell Houston, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Pampell of Dime Box, in a ceremony in the Waldeck Lutheran Church on Sunday, June 25, at 4 p. m.

The Rev. A. T. Kluge performed the double-ring ceremony. Mrs. Arnold Kruse played the traditional wedding music.

The bride, given in marriage by her only brother, was gowned in ivory bridal satin, fashioned with pointed bodice and lace yoke. Long sleeves came to points over her wrists. The full skirt fell into a sweeping train, while the fingertip veil of illusion was held in place by a crown of white seeded pearls. She carried out all the traditions of a bride. The bridal bouquet was of white sweetheart roses with white streamers.

Mrs. Martin Pampell, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore a gown of blue organdy, a picture hat, and carried a bouquet of red roses.

Bridesmaids were Lorene Toll and Gladys Pampell. They wore gowns of green organdy and picture hats, and also carried bouquets of red roses.

Melba Jean Teinert was flower girl. She was gowned in yellow organdy.

Martin Pampell was best man; groomsmen were Edward Pampell and Harry Raschke. Ushers were Martin Zoch and Herbert Symank. E. J. Teinert was ring bearer.

A reception was held at the home of the bride's parents where a supper of pork barbecue and all the trimmings was served to the guests.

The couple is making their home in Houston, where the bridegroom is employed.
