

The Giddings News

August 15, 1924

Grant-Perry

At nine o'clock Thursday morning, August 14, Mr. Frank Perry of Houston, and Miss Winnie Grant were united in marriage at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Will Preuss.

At the appointed hour, Miss Virginia Fields sang, "I Love You," accompanied by Miss Sallie Rutherford. Mrs. Annie Mae Grant, sister-in-law of the bride, played the wedding march. As the strains of the march sounded, Mr. Frank Baker and Miss Clara Heck, best man and bridesmaid, entered and took their positions. Following them came the bride and the groom. Rev. W. W. Burr read a short ceremony that made them husband and wife—then came congratulations.

The spacious parlor and dining room of the Preuss home were thrown open and decorated with a mass of ferns. Quite a number of relatives and intimate friends witnessed the wedding.

The bride, Miss Winnie Grant, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Will Grant of this city, has grown up among us and is one of "our girls." About two years ago she went to Houston and has been engaged in the Industrial Home, a home under the auspices of the Baptist churches of that city to care for the children of mothers who have to work during the day.

Mr. Perry is connected with the great lumber industry that centers about Houston. He is a stranger to us here, but comes highly recommended.

It is understood that the young people will go from here to Jacksonville for a visit to the bride's brother, and from there they will go to Little Rock, Arkansas, which is to be their future home.

The News extends congratulations and best wishes to the newly married couple.

The couple departed on the 11:20 train yesterday morning. Their baggage was labeled in large letters: "Arkansas bound, newlyweds, but happy!"