The ring ceremony was performed by the father of the groom before a chancel space banked with fern and pink gladioli.

Prior to the ceremony, Mrs. Jerry Hicks sang "Because," accompanied by Mrs. M. B. Holleman who also played the traditional wedding marches.

The bride's sister, Miss Elizabeth Peters, was her only attendant. She wore a beige shark-skin ensemble with harmonizing accessories and a corsage of Peruvian lilies.

An informal reception was held at the home of Rev. and Mrs. Geo. N. Cook for the bridal party and out-of-town guests immediately after the ceremony. The table laid with a hand-embroidered cloth was centered with daisies and fern. Punch was served from a frozen punch bowl, with a variety of dainty cookies. The living room was adorned in a profusion of pink hydrangeas and white phlox.
