

Nuptials Solemnized

Miss Beatrice Adnelda Synnatschk became the bride of Collin Vance Pietsch in a candlelight ceremony spoken in the Holy Cross Lutheran Church at Warda Sunday afternoon, Nov. 13, at 1:30 o'clock. The Rev. John Herzog officiated at the double ring rites.

The congregation sang "O Perfect Love" before the ceremony and "With The Lord Thy Task Begin" after the ceremony with Paul Rebsch at the organ. Mr. Rebsch also played the traditional wedding marches.

Baskets of white gladioli, mums, and mixed green foliage decorated the altar and satin bows and candles marked the family pews.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a floor-length gown of white taffeta, lace and net. The lace bodice was made with a small collar and self-covered buttons down the front. The long sleeves came to points over her hands. Flowers outlined with cording enhanced the net over taffeta skirt. Her fingertip veil of illusion fell from a beaded crown. Her bouquet of white carnations and satin ribbon tied in love knots was centered with a purple orchid. She wore a matching set of rhinestone necklace, ear bobs and bracelet, a gift of the groom.

The attendants wore dresses of lace. The bodices featured Peter Pan collars and rhinestones were scattered over the net over taffeta skirts. Miss Frances Kappler, maid of honor, and little Betty Jane Pietsch, the flower girl, wore green and the bridesmaids, Misses Frances Zoch, Lois Ahlschlaeger and Nancy Pietsch and Gladys Teinert and Dorothy Mitschke, the junior bridesmaid, wore pink. All wore crowns of taffeta, beads and rhinestones to match their gowns. They carried fan-shaped bouquets of feathered carnations with satin streamers.

Clarence C. Richter, brother-in-law of the groom, was best man. Groomsmen were Calvin Synnatschk, Jimmy Lehmann, Paul Kappler and Herman Hobratschk and Leon Synnatschk and Gustav Pietsch were junior groomsmen. Candlelighters were Royce Pietsch and Harry Synnatschk and ushers were Herbert Synnatschk, Walter Schumann, William Jurk and Clarence Hobratschk.

The mother of the bride wore a cobalt blue two-piece dress of lace and crepe with black accessories and the mother of the groom wore navy blue gebar-dine with black accessories. Both wore white carnation corsages.

Mrs. Clarence C. Richter, sister of the groom and Miss Janice Marquart, a friend of the bride, were the receptionists. They wore net over taffeta in shades of beige and acpua, respectively, and wore white carnation corsages.

Mrs. Elton Synnatschk registered the gifts.

The reception was held at the VFW Home. Ecru lace overlaid the bride's table. Tapers in crystal candelabra were placed on each side of the wedding cake, topped with miniature bride and groom under an arch of flowers and love birds and placed on a mirror reflector. It was cut and served by Miss Janice Marquart. A barbecue supper with all the trimmings was served to about 350 guests.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hermann Synnatschk of Anton and Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Pietsch are parents of the groom.
