

The Giddings News
April 9, 1920

LUECKE - PLACKE WEDDING

Easter Sunday, about 3 o'clock in the afternoon, Rev. G. W. Fischer, Pastor of the Im. Luth. Church, spoke the words that united Mr. Martin Placke and Miss Emily Luecke in marriage. The wedding took place at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. A. Luecke. Only immediate relatives, Mr. G. Lehmann and family, relatives of the bride, the family of Mr. Geo. Placke of Dime Box, father of the groom, Rev. and Mrs. C. Durow of Loebau, the family of Rev. Fischer, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Schubert were present. A big dinner was enjoyed by those present. The contracting parties had first thought of leaving on the afternoon train but did not get off until that night, departing for Houston, San Antonio, San Benito, Los Angeles, San Francisco, San Jose and Santiago, Cal. where they will spend a month visiting relatives and friends. After May 1st they will be at home in Giddings. Miss Luecke is the daughter of Mrs. A. Luecke of Giddings and was born and reared here where she possesses many friends. Mr. Placke is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Placke of Dime Box, one of Lee County's most respected families. He has been Salesman for the Oakland Cars of Lee Co. of late but resigned that position the first of the month. This young couple were recipients of many useful and valuable presents, a very appreciative one being a month's trip as above outlined and returning via Utah and other points, being given them by her brother, Mr. Herman Luecke. They have a host of friends who wish for them all success and happiness.