A QUIET WEDDING.

Last Thursday evening about 7 o'clock a party of young people from Lincoln drove up to Rev. Burr's house and requested that he tie the matrimonial knot for two of them. The happy couple thus united were Mr. Robert P. Placke and Miss Lois Mathis. They were attended by Mr. J. W. Dodson and Miss Minnie Marburger of Lincoln.

Mr. Placke will be remembered as having clerked for Dr. Mayfield up to the time he volunteered for military service.

Miss Mathis is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Mathis of Lexington, and has a wide circle of admiring friends all over the County.

For a short stay at Lincoln it is understood that the young people expect to reside at Cross Plains, where Mr. Placke has a brother now living.

The News offers most hearty congratulations, and joins a host of admiring friends in wishing for these splendid young people a long and happy life.
