SCHATTE - PRELLOP

The wedding of Miss Tillie Schatte and Mr. Alfred Prellop, took place at St. Paul's Church, Serbin, at 3:30 o'clock Sunday. The ceremony was beautiful, Rev. Herman Schmidt officiating.

The bride and groom entered to the strains of Lohengrin's Wedding March played by Prof. L. Kasper of Serbin, who also played Mendelsohn's recessional. The bride was beautiful in an ivory satin gown fashioned on princess lines. Her soft, sweeping tulle veil was adjusted to a cap of lace. She carried a bridal bouquet of white carnations.

Miss Lillian Schatte, sister of the bride, served as maid of honor. She was gowned in soft yellow satin and carried a lovely bouquet of yellow roses. The groom's sister, Miss Hermine Prellop, served as bridesmaid. She was dressed in a beautiful, shell pink satin gown and carried a bouquet of pink roses. Little Misses Charlynn Holtkamp and Eleanor Teinert, cousins of the bride and groom, respectively, served as flower girls. Charlynn was dressed in a frock of yellow angel crepe and carried a yellow basket filled with rose petals. Little Eleanor was dressed in a fetching pink frock and carried a pink basket filled with rose petals. The groom was attended by Albert Prellop, his brother, as best man and Henry Schatte as groomsman.

Following the ceremony, dinner and luncheon were served at the home of the bride's parents. Beautiful fern and pink and yellow roses and crepe paper were lavishly arranged to form the decoration. The bride's table held a wedding cake wreathed with lilies of the valley. The table was lighted with ivory candles in silver candlesticks.

The couple will make their home near Lincoln. The bride is the oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Schatte, and the groom is the oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Aug. Prellop, both families living near Serbin.
