BRIDE-TO-BE

Mrs. S. M. Heyser entertained with a miscellaneous shower Wednesday evening honoring her niece, Miss Elkanah Preuss whose marriage to W. O. Keaghey of Cleburne and Giddings which will take place at Tatum on Saturday evening was announced.

Miss Dolores Heyser, dressed in pink taffeta, Miss Lorine Grant in rose satin, and Mrs. L. M. Preuss wearing blue brocade taffeta greeted the guests all wearing harmonizing corsages. Miss Gladys Stueber, in a white organdy frock, presided at the bride's book.

Mrs. M. Folkes sang "At Dawning", Miss Gypsy Kelly gave a reading "In the Usual Way." Miss Bessie Harris sang "Sweet Mystery of Life."

"Extra—Extra Miss Elkanah Preuss to wed W. O. Keaghey" echoed from the outside when little Carma Jean Heyser dressed as a newsboy entered, distributing circulars in colors announcing the coming event.

Mrs. L. M. Preuss presented the gifts to the bride to be, who was dressed in a becoming costume of white and black, wearing a corsage of pink rose buds and ajeratum.

The home was beautiful in its decoration of white oleanders and white shasta daisies combined with various colored gladiolas.

Refreshments of ice cream and cake were served to Miss Elkanah Preuss, Mrs. Mamie Preuss, mother of the honoree, Misses Lorine Grant, Gladys Stueber, Dolores Heyser, Carma Jean Heyser, Bessie Harris, Alta Marie Placke, Winona Garrett, Dora Lanke; Rosa Lee Pitts, Gypsy Kelly, Bernice Winkler, Catherine Holtcamp, Elizabeth Dickerson; Mesdames Claud Grant, Fred Sanders, F.
