Schmidt-Blasig Rites Read At Serbin

Miss Ruth Schmidt, daughter of the late Rev. Herman Schmidt, became the bride of Henry Blasig in a quiet ceremony at St. Paul's Lutheran Church at Serbin on Sunday afternoon, June 18, at 5 p. m.

The Rev. A. Arndt performed the double-ring ceremony.

An arrangement of dwarf zinnias in pastel shades and potted begonias furnished the decoration before the candlelit altar. Fern and palms completed the background.

The entire congregation sang the hymn, "The Lord is My Shepard."

The pastor spoke briefly on "Founding a Home." H. E. Weiser played the traditional wedding music.

The bride, given in marriage by her brother, Martin E. Schmidt, was graciously attired in a floor-length dress of navy crepe with white lace trim, highlighted by three strands of pearls and a corsage of white carnations.

She was attended by her sister, Mrs. Carl Blasig of Mercedes, who wore a printed sheer dress with a corsage of rose asters.

Carl Blasig served his brother as best man, and ushers were Oscar Blasig and Paul Schmidt.

The mothers of the couple wore dark sheer with gladioli corsages.

A reception followed the ceremony in the home of Mrs. Theresa Henderson of Giddings, where a wedding supper was served members of the immediate family.

The bride is well-known to nearly everyone in the county, having served as assistant teacher in the Serbin Parochial School for a number of years, and for the last 12 years she served as Dr. Mantzel's office nurse at the Mantzel-Parker Clinic.

The couple is planning to make their home on Route 1 Giddings.
