

Joyce Frels Is Bride Of Alvin Schroeder

Miss Joyce Louise Frels, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Monroe Frels of Ledbetter, and Alvin Marvin Schroeder, son of Fritz Schroeder of Ledbetter, were united in marriage Sunday, Sept. 24, at 6 p. m. in a double-ring ceremony at the Carmine Martin Luther Church. The Rev. A. T. Kluge read the marriage vows.

Roses and fern decorated the church.

The bride entered the church with the bridegroom. She wore a floorlength white taffeta gown, with rayon lace yoke, fitted bodice, long rayon lace sleeves which came to a point over her hands. The full-skirt was gathered. Her fingertip rayon illusion net veil was edged with rayon lace which was held in place by a beaded coronet halo. Her only ornament was a double strand of pearls.

She carried a white Bible, topped with white flowers, fern, and white satin ribbon.

Miss Elsie Schroeder, sister of the bridegroom, served as maid of honor. She was gowned in blue taffeta and wore a pink rose corsage.

Miss Burdella Lange, cousin of the bride, was bridesmaid. She wore a pink taffeta gown and a pink rose corsage.

Alois Frels of Houston, brother of the bride, served as best man.

Herbert Schroeder, brother of the bridegroom, was groomsman.

The mother of the bride wore navy blue taffeta with black accessories and wore a pink flower corsage.

The wedding reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. The wedding supper consisted of barbecue chicken with all the trimmings.

The two-tiered embossed wedding cake, with miniature bride and bridegroom, placed on a mirror reflector, edged with a white organdy ruffle centered the lace covered table.

The couple will make their home in Giddings.
