ANNOUNCEMENT DINNER PARTY FOR MISS MARIE SCHROEDER

Miss Emily Schroeder announced the engagement and approaching marriage of her sister Miss Marie Schroeder to Fred Weiser at a dinner party Friday evening December 5, the event to take place January 4.

White and white chrysanthemums formed the decoration throughout the home. Plates, laid for 16 guests, were marked with corsages, the honoree's being white chrysanthemums. In the center of the lace covered table a large bow of wine satin ribbon rested on the oblong mirror from which four streamers extended to the large white chrysanthemums at each corner. White candles burned in crystal candelabra at either end of the table. An electric lighting of candles formed the background for the buffet decorations, white chrysanthemums in a crystal bowl forming the center piece, with white candles burning in single crystal holders at each end of the buffet.

In the living room were floor baskets and crystal bowls holding white chrysanthemums.

The menu consisted of wine cocktail, turkey with all the trimmings, cranberry salad, and whipped jello and coffee. The guest list included Miss Marie Schroeder who wore a becoming dress of heavenly blue, Mesdames Claud McIntosh, A. E. Fischer Lyle Groth, Max Studtmann, Henry Nerger, M. L. Meitzen, W. L. Pratho, Dalvin Spacek, Ella Martens, Misses Dora Laake, Bernice Kieke, Rosa Lee Pitts, Ellie Osthoff.
