Neitsch-Schuhmann

Sunday afternoon at one-thirty at the Im. Lutheran church, Rev. Fischer pronounced the words that made Miss Carrie Neitsch and Mr. Ed. Schuhmann man and wife. A large number of relatives and friends of the contracting parties were present to witness the pretty wedding. The bridal party took the train for Galveston where they will spend a few days, and then they will return to Giddings to make their home in a residence provided by the groom.

The bride is the second oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Neitsch, prominent people and a business man of Giddings. Her friends are limited only by her acquaintance, and she is a young lady of exceptional industry along domestic lines, having aided her mother in the housework incident to the rearing of a large family.

The groom is assistant cashier of the Citizens State Bank and is a young man quite popular in the business and social lines of Giddings. Ed, as he is known to all, is of sterling worth and integrity and is an equal companion to such a worthy helpmate. Both young people grew into maturity in Giddings and their friends are numerous who join the News in wishing them a long life of happiness and prosperity aboard the ship of matrimony.
