Schultz—Hollingsworth Vows Told July 29 At Martin Luther Church in Giddings

Mr. and Mrs. Lamar Hollingsworth are at home at 5706 Clay Ave., Austin, after their wedding at the Martin Luther Church in Giddings on Friday, July 29 at 7:30 p. m.

Rev. Fred. Mgebroff performed the double ring ceremony before an altar decorated with white gladioli and asters which united Mr. Hollingsworth and Miss Waldeen Schultz.

Mrs. Emmett Hannes was organist and also accompanied Mrs. Harry Namken who sang "Always."

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter G. Schultz of Giddings, is a graduate of Giddings High School. The groom is the son of Mrs. Hilda Hollingsworth of Austin and Lee Hollingsworth of Spicewood. He is a graduate of Johnson City High School.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a ballerina-length lace dress over taffeta with fitted bodice, and long sleeves that came to a point. Her veil was fingertip length. She wore a gold locket, a gift of the groom, and carried a prayer book with a white orchid.

Maid of honor was Miss Iris Henderson. She wore yellow net over taffeta and carried a bouquet of lavender asters.

Roger Schultz, brother of the bride was best man.

Ushers were Charles Schultz and Michael Schmidt, brother and cousin of the bride respectively.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Schultz chose a navy blue nylon dress with black accessories and white carnation corsage.

The groom's mother wore light blue nylon, black accessories and white carnation corsage.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held in the Martin Luther Educational Building. Miss Ruth Henderson registered the guests and Mrs. Leroy Albers served the wedding cake.

For a wedding trip to Shreveport, La., the bride wore a beige linen suit with white orchid corsage.

The groom is employed by a cabinet building firm in Austin.
