Schulz--Jenke Vows Spoken at Serbin

Miss Eleanor Ruth Schulz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Schudz of Serbin and Eugene Raymond Jenke, son of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Jenke were married on June 25 in St. Paul's Lutheran Church in Serbin, with Rev. A. Arndt performing the double-ring ceremony.

L. O. Kasper of Houston furnished the traditional wedding music while the congregation sang "The Lord is My Shepherd" White gladioli, fern, and palm leaves decorated the altar.

The bride, entering the church with the groom, wore a gown of embroidered organdy over taffeta with a V-neckline and tiny covered buttons coming to a point down the back. The short sleeves were complimented with gauntlets which extended to points over her wrist. The floor length skirt was enhanced by three tiers of embroidered organdy. Her short veil of tulle illusion was fastened to a lace headpiece, trimmed with sequins. She carried a bouquet of white carnations.

Miss Lavine Jenke, sister of the groom, served the bride as maid-of-honor. She was gowned in light blue organdy over taffeta and wore matching short blue gloves.

Miss Alfred Schulz and Miss Margaret Jenke were the bridesmaids. Their gowns and gloves were made identical to that of the maid of honor. They all carried bouquets of pink carnations.

The flower girls, Betty Jean Jenke and Shirleen Bigon, were also dressed in light blue organdy and wore matching gloves. They carried miniature bouquets of pink carnations.

The groomsmen were Alfred Schulz and Gilbert Fritsche. Milburn Jenke and Herbert Schulz served as ushers.

The mother of the bride wore a gray-blue dress with navy and black accessories. The groom's mother wore a navy dress with navy and black accessories. Both had pink carnation corsages.

The reception was held at the home of the bride's parents where a barbecue supper and all the trimmings was served to the guests.

An altar shaped cake, decorated with birds and pink sugared roses with a miniature bride and groom on the aisle was placed in the center of the bride's table.

Mrs. Carl Mertink registered the guests and served the cake.

The couple will be at home in Thrall where the groom is employed at Preuss Cleaners.
