Miss Gertrude Schulze Becomes Bride
Of Albert Hobratschk in Rites at Fedor

Miss Gertrude Schulze, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Schulze of Fedor, and Albert Hobratschk, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Hobratschk, were united in marriage at the Trinity Lutheran Church in Fedor Saturday afternoon Feb. 19, Rev. L. Karcher.

The bride wore a white satin dress with an overskirt of white lace. The overskirt was adorned with appliqued butterflies trimmed in sequins. The bodice was lace with a yoke of white net joined to it with appliqued leaves trimmed in sequins and pearls. The fingertip veil was also trimmed with sequins and pearls.

She was attended by two bridesmaids, Miss Margaret Schuh of Kerrville and Miss Annie Mae Hobratschk of Warda. Their dresses were of taffeta with an overskirt of net. They carried semicrescent bouquets of white carnations.

Groomsmen were Gilbert Schulze of Fedor and Hermon Hobratschk of Kerrville, and ushers were Clarence Schulze and Willy Hobratschk of Kerrville, and ushers were Clarence Schulze and Willy Hobratschk, both of Giddings.

The church was decorated with arrangements of white asters and carnations, and fern trees on either side of the altar.

The reception was held at the Giddings Fireman's Hall. The table was covered with a white linen cloth, and the double ring wedding cake was flanked by candles. Mrs. Clarenc Schulze, sister-in-law of the bride, presided at the guest book, and gifts were opened by Mrs. John Schmidt. A barbecue supper was then served to the 150 guests.

The couple went to West Texas for their wedding trip. They plan to make their home in Kerrville where both are employed on the Take-it-Easy Ranch, owned by Mrs. Bruno Schulze.
