

The Giddings News

October 17, 1941

SEALE - DODSETT

Miss Beulamae Dorsett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Dorsett, and Marion Seale, son of Mrs. C. E. Seale were married Saturday evening, Oct. 11 at the home of the bride's parents.

Rev. H. C. Hooter of the Baptist Church performed the ceremony before an improvised altar of seasonal flowers and fern. The wedding music was furnished by Mrs. Marvin Folkes who played "Indian Love Call" and Wagner's Wedding March. Ray Seale served his brother as best man. Little Miss Frances Gayle Folkes carried the ring on a lace trimmed satin pillow.

The bride entered with her brother, Dick Dorsett. She wore an antique brown crepe tunic dress trimmed with buttons of green rhinestones. She wore matching accessories and a corsage of talisman roses and bouvardia.

Following the ceremony an informal reception was held. Out-of-town guests included: Mr. J. L. Dorsett of Plainview; Mrs. Will Mathis, Mrs. Wallace Pierce, Misses Billie Mae and Virginia Sue Pierce, and Miss Kelly, of Lexington.

After a wedding trip to the Rio Grande Valley and Mexico, Mr. and Mrs. Seale will be at home with his mother in Giddings.