

The Giddings Star
October 17, 1941

SEALE — DORSETT NUPTIALS
SOLEMNIZED SAT. EVENING

Miss Beulamae Dorsett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Dorsett, and Marion Seale, son of Mrs. C. E. Seale, were married Saturday evening October 11 at the home of the bride's parents.

Rev. H. C. Hooter, pastor of the First Baptist church, performed the ceremony before an improvised altar of seasonal flowers and fern.

Mrs. Marvin Folkes played the wedding music, "Indian Love Call" and Wagner's "Wedding March." Ray Seale served his brother as best man. Little Frances Gayle Folkes carried the ring on a lace trimmed satin pillow.

The bride entered with her brother Dick Dorsett. She wore a rust crepe tunic dress trimmed with buttons of green rhinestones. She wore matching accessories and a corsage of talisman roses and bouvardia.

Following the ceremony an informal reception was held. Guests were Mr. J. L. Dorsett of Plainview, Mrs. Will Mathis, Mrs. Wallace Pierce, Misses Billie Mae and Virginia Sue Pierce, Miss Kelly of Lexington, Mrs. Florence Fields, Mr. Jim Dorsett, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Folkes, Frances Gayle and Jimmy Folkes, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Kelly and daughter Dianne, Mr. and Mrs. Chester Pfeiffer and son Bill Darter, and Mr. and Mrs. O. F. Sump.

After a wedding trip to the Rio Grande valley and Mexico, Mr. and Mrs. Seale will make their home in Giddings.

They both attended Giddings High, Mrs. Seale having taught in the Lee county schools several years.

The Star extends to this couple best wishes for a very happy married life.