

The Giddings News

October 1, 1920

KELLY - SIKES

One of the prettiest and quietest wedding of the season was celebrated at the home of the bride, Mr. and Mr. Geo. E. Kelly, when their daughter, Annie Ryland, became Mrs. W. A. Sikes Jr. Only members of the immediate families of the bride and groom were present.

At two o'clock, accompanied by a wedding march played by the bride's sister, Mrs. Albert Peters, the couple entered the room, and in a brief ceremony was pronounced "husband and wife" by Rev. W. W. Burr.

The bride was dressed in a beautiful blue serge go-away costume, and carried a large bouquet of American Beauty roses and fern.

After the ceremony the couple took the 2:40 East bound Central for Richmond, Texas where they will visit the groom's sister, Mrs. S. J. Brown.

Miss Annie Kelly is a daughter of our very popular Ry. Agent, Mr. G. E. Kelly, and has been reared at Giddings. Mr. Sikes is son of our efficient County Treasurer, Mr. W. A. Sikes Sr.

Mr. Sikes is one of Lexington's enterprising merchants, and they will be "at home" to their friends, in Lexington, after October 1st.

The News joins the great host of friends of these very popular young people in wishing them a long and happy voyage on life's matrimonial seas.