

The Giddings Star May 9, 1941

BRIDE-TO-BE HONORED AT TEA

Mrs. Milton York and Mrs. John Simmang entertained with a beautifully appointed tea on Saturday afternoon from 4 to 6 o'clock at the home of Mrs. York to announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their sister Miss Aileen Simmang to Captain George Burgess Robertson of the U. S. Army stationed at Camp Bowles, which will be an event of May 17th.

The guests were greeted by Mrs. R. A. Toler who wore pink taffeta, and Dorothy Ann York, niece of the honoree, wearing pink organza. Mrs. Ted Simmang presided at the bride's book. She wore a white and red taffeta gown.

In the receiving line were Mrs. Milton York in aqua chiffon, Mrs. John Simmang who wore black chiffon, Miss Aileen Simmang, looking her loveliest in white jersey next to her mother Mrs. E. T. Simmang who wore rose crepe, and Miss Dorothy Simmang, sister of the honoree, who wore pink silk marquisette. They wore harmonizing corsages.

Other members of the house party included Mrs. Ira Dippel in blue lace, Mrs. R. B. Burns who wore blue taffeta, Mrs. E. M. Collier wearing black crepe with white embroidered trimmings, Mrs. P. X. McGuire whose costume was white embroidered blouse with black crepe skirt. Their corsages were of harmonizing hues.

Arrangements of pink radiance roses, delphinium, and dentzia were scattered throughout the house. The table, from which Mrs. Dippel and Mrs. Burns poured the first hour and Mrs. Collier and Mrs. McGuire poured the second hour, was laid with a lace draped cloth over green satin and centered by an arrangement of pink sweetheart roses and dentzia on a reflector to represent an old-fashioned garden scene. A miniature bridal couple stood before an altar of rosebuds. The scene was lighted with tall silver tapers on either side. An arrangement of roses with lighted tapers on the buffet completed the decoration.

Mrs. Ed McCleskey, wearing white moire' taffeta with trimmings of red velvet, Mrs. Joe Stooksberry in white frosted organza, and Mrs. Marvin Folkes in blue satin gown entertained the guests with a musical program.

The announcements "Aileen and Burgess—May 17" in gold letters were on the refreshment plate which held an assortment of sandwiches and confections, the latter simulating a bride's bouquet.

Approximately one hundred guests registered.