IVEY - SIMMANG

The marriage of Miss Dorothy Claire Simmang, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Emil Theodore Simmang of Giddings, to Lieut. Robert Henry Ivey, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Ivey of San Marcos occurred Sunday at 9:30 a. m., at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Milton York. Dr. Guy B. Duff officiated.

The ceremony was performed by candle light before an improvised altar of palm, fern and daisies. Preceding the entrance of the bridal couple to the strains of the Wedding March, from Wagner's Lohengrin, Miss Sue Ann Ivey and Miss Dorothy Ann York lighted the tapers. During the ceremony Mrs. Weldon Leyendecker of Columbus, sister of the groom, softly played one of her own compositions.

The bride wore a powder blue Hattie Carnegie costume suit with British tan accessories, and wore a corsage of white orchids. She carried an heirloom handkerchief of Mexican lace and hand drawn linen which was carried by her mother and two sisters at their weddings.

Following the wedding breakfast was served to members of the two families in the dining room, which was decorated in a pink and blue motif with snapdragons, gladiolus and blue plumbago.

Centered on the table was a three-tiered crescent - shaped bride's cake, ornamented with orange blossoms, wedding bells and arch and tiny doves over a miniature bride and groom.

Assisting Mrs. York in serving were Mrs. Burgess Robertson, Mrs. Leyendecker, and Mrs. John Simmang.

Present were Mrs. Weldon Leyendecker and son Jimmy of Columbus; Mrs. Burgess Robinson of Lecompte, La.; Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Ivey and daughter Sue Ann of San Marcos; Mr. and Mrs. Claude Ivey of San Antonio; Mr. and Mrs. Milton York and daughter Dorothy Ann, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Simman and daughter Sylvie Ann Borland, Judge and Mrs. John Simmang and daughter Mary Kay.

Lieut. and Mrs. Ivey will enjoy a brief honeymoon in New Orleans, en route to Columbus, Ga., where their address will be 1326 Wynnton Drive. Mrs. Ivey's going-away costume was a chartreuse suit with rust accessories.

She attended S. W. T. S. T. C. at San Marcos and the University of Texas.

Lieut. Ivey attended Texas A. and M. and S. W. T. S. T. C. before entering West Point, from which he was graduated May 29. He will be stationed with an infantry unit at Fort Benning, Ga. for the next three months.
