The Giddings News

September 7, 1923

Sparks-Smart

Saturday morning Miss Julia Sparks and Prof. N. C. Smart wede married at the Preshyterian church, in the presence of many invited friends. To the sweet music provided by Mrs. W. O. Bowers, Jr. at the piano, Miss Eleanor Fletcher with the violin and Milton McGee on the trombone, and the beautiful solo "I Love You", by Miss Virginia Fields, the parties marched to the attar preceded by Miss Dorothy Johnson, Jim Ramsey. Miss Gladys Bowers and Gaines Sparks and little Miss Willie Elizabeth Mason of Hamlin, Texes as flower girl and Billie Bowers as ring bearer. The ceremony was pronounced by Rev. Hendricks, paster of the Brenham Baptist church.

The happy couple will make their home in Stephenville where the groom has a position in the schools. Their many friends in Giddings wish them a life of much pleasure and usefulness.